Native Voices and Earth Justice

Indigenous People's Environmental Movement and How We Can Help

Sunday, June 4, 1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento @ 2425 Sierra Blvd., Sacramento, CA 95825

1:00 – 2:00 Pennie Opal Plant, member of "Idle No More San Francisco Bay," a group of Native Americans and allies rising up for the rights of indigenous People, Mother Earth and the coming generations.

2:00 – 2:45 "Fossil Free California" Board Member. FFCA focuses on removing investment in fossil fuels from our taxpayer-funded retirement systems CalPERS & STRS, our local governments' finances, and our personal savings. We are taking a fresh look at what is ethical investing in this era of climate change. How and where we invest our money is fundamental to a climate-smart future that respects human communities and our deep connections with the natural world.

2:45 – 3:15 Questions and Answers

3:15 – 4:00 Cookies, Conversations, Connections

This is a free event by UUSS Interfaith Earth Justice. Donations accepted. Contact: interfaithearth@uuss.org or Christine Bailey 916-635-8194

Co-sponsored by: CALIFORNIA Interfaith Power & Light

6 April 2017